

■ Product Overview

SearchXS-RM for OpenText Records Management

SEARCHXS

SEARCHXS-RM provides an innovative and intuitive new approach to searching and retrieval of information based on any combination of Content Server Records Management metadata, multiple custom category attributes and your full document content search.

New fresh, simple to build and intuitive interfaces delivering powerful search capability and results in a format that meets the specific differing needs of corporate, project and operational business groups - significantly increasing your ROI in Livelink ECM.

Simplicity and Power

Applications designed by the business – for the business.

Deliver... the full power of Content Server Search up and across the Enterprise

Transform business and user group perception of Content Server Search capability...
...see user adoption increase rapidly

Create... and deploy multiple lightweight function / role focused search screens...in minutes... give users what they want

Embed... simple advanced search capability across your corporate intranet...and your Microsoft Sharepoint interfaces ...easily

Leveraging value from Content Server Search

Increased accuracy and relevance of information retrieved in data sets that reflect how your users think when looking for information on which they base their next decision.

Increased productivity...facilitating the change from a time consuming browsing culture to 'search and find' reducing time spent looking for information, giving you, your group and your organisation the competitive edge, allowing users to focus on using information to make better informed decisions...faster.

Spend less time looking for information - more time using it...
...making better informed decisions...faster!

Results returned in a selectable grid or list format with selected attributes display.

- It's a single click...
- ...to display format in Grid or List
- ...to sort results by column (attribute)
- ...to export results to spreadsheet application
- ...to open/edit selected document with LL Explorer integration
- ...to view all file attributes
- ...to go to file location in native Livelink

Leveraging Value to the end user... [Preview here]

- Leveraging core search functionality to an intuitive interface
- Deploying search screens that reflects specific business group language
- Allowing even inexperienced users to create complex queries... transparently
- Delivering results in a format that your users need and understand
- Providing dynamic interface between results and your document applications

...by making it easy to... [Preview here]

- Build search screens that meet the business user requirement... easily
- Deploy search screens that reflects specific business group language... easily
- Create default value searches and slices... easily
- Embed advanced search capability across your corporate intranet... easily

Benefits

- Significantly reduced training time and costs
- Accelerate user adoption and increase utilization
- Increase productivity with reduced learning curves
- Allows users to focus on their data, information and knowledge
- Enhance ease of access to information across the organisation

Blubaker Limited
 7 Queens Gardens
 Aberdeen, Scotland. AB15 4YD
 Tel : +44 1224 619202
info@blubaker.com

